

Install an expansive mirror above your vanity, spanning its width. You'll create an abundance of reflective light – and two can then share the space. Loving the glass entry door to the separate bathing zone. For similar custom glass doors, try Axolotl.

Roca Khroma soft-close toilet seat in passion red, $211, Reece.

Adagio Monda basin set, $99, Bunnings Warehouse.

Digital scales in red, $29, Lorraine Lea Linen.

Add ping with unexpected colour. Hären bath towels in lilac, $7.99 each, IKEA.

Decorator's tips

- Striking tiles either side of a built-in bath create a beautiful feature wall. Consider on-trend very large format tiles.
- Tiling can seriously dent your budget, but you can save money by not tiling every wall. A mirror is less expensive and will result in the room appearing bigger and brighter.
- Whatever your flooring, add luxury with underfloor heating.

Concerto heated towel rail, $299, Bunnings Warehouse.

Watty! Murano

Caroma Carboni II above-counter basin, $194 (tapware extra), Bunnings Warehouse.

Wenko Polaris ceramic toilet brush/holder, $39.95, Master Distributors.

Store toiletries in the Branäs basket, $19.99, IKEA.

For shopping details, see Stockists page